

MOTOKRZR

Following in the footsteps of the revolutionary MOTORAZR phone, the new ultra-sleek MOTOKRZR introduces a new standard of stunning style and innovation. Sharp and sophisticated with a luxurious finish and detailed craftsmanship, the MOTOKRZR is the definitive mobile for individuals who have an appreciation for cutting edge designs. Within the MOTOKRZR phone's striking form lies remarkable functionality rich in first-class multimedia and entertainment capabilities, global connectivity* and more—all designed to give you an elite, unparalleled wireless experience.

Divine Design

Reflecting the design language of the super-slim MOTORAZR, the MOTOKRZR exudes pure luxury with clean lines, precision detailing and premium materials shrouded within a distinctive metallic gloss front finish. The MOTOKRZR builds upon one of the most celebrated designs of the past decade by blending slender form with razor-thin design principles in a sleek clamshell form. Measuring a mere 16mm thin X 42mm wide X 103mm long and weighing only 3.6 ounces, the MOTOKRZR slips easily into a pocket or purse.

Elite Entertainment

Fusing superior form with rich functionality, the MOTOKRZR houses a host of premium multimedia features. The ultimate all-in one device for extraordinary imaging, the MOTOKRZR lets you capture your latest jaunt to Cape Town via a 2MP camera with 8x zoom or via video capture and playback capabilities. Take your travel soundtracks with you while you jet across the globe with the convenient integrated MP3 player, airplane mode and Stereo Bluetooth® headset support (such as the Motorola Bluetooth DJ Headphones S805)*. With removable MicroSD card slot, there's always room for all your favorite music files.

International Icon

From L.A. to Lisbon, the MOTOKRZR connects you effortlessly with friends, family, and your favorite content. Featuring worldwide quad-band functionality*, EDGE technology for hi-speed web browsing and downloads and Screen3 technology for zero-click access to the latest news and entertainment, the MOTOKRZR puts premium power in the palm of your hand.

Elegant and Effortless

Delivering connectivity convenience with compatible Bluetooth enabled devices at the touch of a button, the MOTOKRZR provides hands-free conversations via Bluetooth wireless technology, enhanced predictive text for effortless texting and advanced voice functionality, including voice commands, voice recognition, and voice memo. The MOTOKRZR achieves the elusive goal in mobile devices by perfectly balancing design, craftsmanship and functionality all in a breathtaking package.
