

MOTOROLA S605 Bluetooth Stereo Clip Headset

Ultra lightweight and simple to use, the S605 Bluetooth® Stereo Clip Headset allows consumers to take music and calls anywhere – with the discreetness and comfort of their favorite earbuds¹. The S605 provides wireless connections to compatible Bluetooth enabled phones or MP3 players, plus it has a built-in FM radio. With music and calls controlled from the clip, you never have to search for your phone. And, at a price that is so affordable, this rhythm is going to get you.

Don't Miss a Beat

Bluetooth Stereo connectivity adds simplicity by allowing you to answer calls and listen to streaming music from an MP3 player or Stereo Bluetooth enabled mobile phone without ever having to dig for devices². Five programmable FM stations and conveniently located music and call controls ensure that you always stay in tune.

Perfect Accessory

Small and sleek, the clip-on style of the S605 delivers powerful sound without overpowering your look. With the option to use the included headphones or your own favorites, you can show off a style that is all your own.

Sound at a Steal

Who says you have to sacrifice sound for affordability? Both music and calls come across this stereo headset loud and clear. Holding its own as the most affordable stereo Bluetooth device in Motorola's roster, the S605 is a device you can rock and talk, hands-free and guilt-free.
